

HOME AND FAMILY PERSPECTIVE: JOURNAL OF THE UTAH ASSOCIATION OF FAMILY AND CONSUMER SCIENCES

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

The submission deadline for the 2011 issue is Thursday, June 30, 2011. Articles must be submitted electronically as an attached Microsoft Word (.doc or .docx file) document to Jennifer Nielson at Jennifer.nielson@usu.edu. Article submission to AAFCS/UAFCS members is free. A fee of $60 is required for non-members. Students are exempt from the submission fee. Please send payment via check to: Jennifer Nielson, 327 W. 285 N., Wellsville, UT 84339.

Authors must submit 2 attached documents; one with the author information included on a cover page, and another without the author page or any reference to the author, state or institution in the text. The author(s) is solely responsible for the content, accuracy, and clarity of the entire submission. Author (Cover) Page: The title of the article, author name, title, affiliation, postal and e-mail addresses, telephone and fax numbers should be provided on a separate author (cover) page. Authors will be listed in the order they are submitted on the author (cover) page.

Following the author (cover) page, from two to eight pages of text, and three to four pages of graphs, charts, etc. will be accepted. Each table or figure, formatted using current APA style, should be placed on a separate page. Use 8½" X 11" paper with 1" margins. Text must be double spaced in size 12 font, with the title of the article appearing at the top of each page. Pages should be numbered. Text of the article should be divided into subcategories corresponding to: introduction, objective (purpose or hypothesis), method, findings and summary. Articles not formatted correctly or found with grammatical and spelling errors will be returned to the author. Changes may be made, but the article will not be reviewed again until 2012 call for paper appears. References should be alphabetical by author, cited using the current APA style and left-justified. List only those references cited within the article.

The review process will be completed by September 30, 2011. Each article will be read by two or more blind reviewers. Comments will be sent back to the author to improve the article. If the article is accepted, authors will be requested to make revisions and changes October 15, 2011.

The Journal of the Utah Association of Family and Consumer Sciences only accepts articles that have not been previously published. The journal is an electronic publication and will appear at www.uafcs.org by December 2011.
